2016 Scout Sniper Instructor of the Year Award

Marine Scout Sniper Instructors take pride in their hard work, dedication, and impact they have on their students. The USMC SSA will formally recognize the professional, technical, and leadership achievements of the 2016 Scout Sniper Instructor of the Year from one of the three MOS-producing schools: Camp Pendleton, Quantico, and Camp Lejeune.

SNCOIC's from each of the school houses listed above will determine their top-rated Scout Sniper Instructor for fiscal year ending on 30 September 2016. Selection will be based on the following criteria:

- Professional achievement;
- Technical proficiency;
- Leadership;
- Impact on students;
- Significant accomplishments as a Scout Sniper Instructor;
- Significant accomplishments as a Scout Sniper; and
- Demonstrated pride in being a Scout Sniper.

The school houses will email their nomination packages in Word or PDF format to vpawardsscholarships@scoutsniper.org. Information for each nominee will include:

- Name, Rank, Unit, and Assignment of both the Nominator and the Nominee.
- Superior's Essay: Maximum 500-word document outlining what the Marine did to be recognized as the Scout Sniper of the Year for the performance period of 01 October 2015 thru 30 September 2016.
- Nominee's Essay: Maximum 500-word document describing his perspective of how he fulfilled his duties for the performance period of 01 October 2015 thru 30 September 2016.

Note: The SSA does not want a service bio, USMC portrait, or list of awards (unless earned during the period being evaluated and directly related to the mission), etc.

Significant dates are as follows:

- 10 November 2016 – Deadline for receipt of nomination package
- 12 December 2016 – Announcement of 2016 Scout Sniper Instructor of the Year

Award presentation will be at SHOT Show on 18 January 2017.

SSA will cover cost of airfare and hotel for recipient to attend award presentation to receive the award.
